PARISH FEATURE & FOCUS

Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

On the Feast of the Holy Family, we are invited to contemplate what may be the most comforting, and perhaps surprising, truth of our faith: that God chose to enter the world not as an abstract idea, but as a child in a family. Not in a palace, not among the powerful, but in an ordinary home with ordinary pressures, ordinary joys, and very real challenges.

It is tempting to imagine the Holy Family as flawless, Mary serenely peaceful, Joseph endlessly patient, Jesus quietly obedient. But the Gospels give us something more human and more hopeful. This family knew uncertainty. They faced misunderstanding, sudden relocation, financial strain, and even the fear of losing their child. If there were a “how-to manual” for perfect family life, Nazareth did not follow it. Instead, they lived by something deeper: trust in God, daily fidelity, and love expressed in small, consistent acts.

Joseph teaches us that holiness often looks like showing up. He speaks not a single word in Scripture, yet his life speaks volumes. He listens, he protects, he provides, and he trusts God even when the plan disrupts his own.

Mary teaches us that faith is not passive acceptance but courageous cooperation. Her “yes” unfolds not in ease, but in perseverance, pondering, praying, and holding God’s promises even when she does not fully understand them.

And Jesus, who is God, chooses to learn how to walk, speak, pray, and work within a family. Think of that: the Savior of the world learns obedience at a kitchen table, learns prayer from his mother, and learns responsibility from his foster father. That alone should give hope to every parent who wonders whether their daily efforts matter. They do.

The Holy Family reminds us that holiness is not built in dramatic moments alone, but in shared meals, patient listening, forgiveness after misunderstanding, and love renewed again and again. Family life is not about perfection; it is about presence.

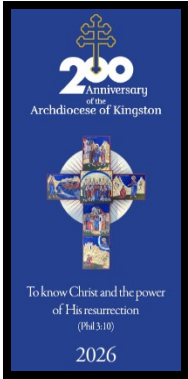

As we honor the Holy Family today, we ask not for perfect homes, but for faithful hearts. May our families, like the home of Nazareth, become places where God is welcomed, prayer is learned, and love is practiced in ordinary, daily ways. When family life feels strained, imperfect, or unfinished, may we remember that this is precisely the soil where grace takes root.

The Holy Family assures us that God works not despite our human fragility, but through it. And so, we go forth with hope, trusting that God is quietly shaping holiness in our homes, one faithful moment at a time.

Merry Christmas and New Year Blessings!

THANK YOU & VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

We extend our sincere gratitude to Rick Burke, who faithfully served as custodian and groundskeeper at St. John’s Church for many years.

With his recent retirement, we thank Rick for his dedication, care, and quiet service to our parish, and we wish him and his family every blessing as they begin this new chapter.

As we move forward during this time of transition, we are grateful to the volunteers who have generously stepped up to assist with church cleaning. Their help has been a true blessing. However, this important work cannot be carried by a few alone, and we are seeking additional volunteers to join them. Even one hour a week can make a meaningful difference.

If you are able to help, please contact the parish office. Thank you once again to Rick, and to all who continue to serve our parish with such generosity and care.
